

Celebrating Madison's Sesquicentennial and Alabama's Bicentennial
"Respect for the Past
Confidence for the Future"

Madison's Christmas Capers Reenactment and the Madison Station Polar Express Christmas Parade
Saturday, December 14, 2019
Main Street, Madison, AL
5:00 – 7:00 PM

Please join the City of Madison and the Madison Sesquicentennial Committee
As we celebrate
Madison's 150th & Alabama's 200th!

Open during regular business hours and throughout the Christmas Capers and Parade

Historic display provided by former Madison City Commissioner Bebe Oetjen
Opie Balch Realty, 106 Main Street

5:00

150th Birthday Cake/Cupcakes: Sesquicentennial Committee
Hot Chocolate: Rotary Club of Madison
Entertainment: Madison City Community Orchestra

5:30

Doc Hughes' grandsons Larry and Walt Anderson will be reenacting the Historic Christmas Capers
Rubber Chickens with gift vouchers tied to their legs will be tossed from the balcony of Hughes Hardware.
Total value of gift vouchers exceeds $3000.00!

5:30

Madison Christmas Parade "Madison Polar Express" departs Plaza Boulevard, onto Hughes Road toward
Main Street – join the crowd on Main for the 150th BIRTHDAY PARTY!!

Our thanks to:

Mayor Paul Finley and the Madison City Council, Madison Parks and Rec, Madison Police Department,
Madison's Downtown Merchants, the Madison Station Historic Preservation Society, Rotary Club of Madison, Madison City Community Orchestra, and Todd Phillips.

Prize Sponsors: Huntsville International Airport, Belk, City of Madison, Madison Family Dentistry, Amy
Thompson Dentistry, Brocks Jewelry, Opie Balch Realty, Grogran Jewelry, The Morris Team Keller
Williams, Old Black Bear, Heritage Florist, Drury Inn & Suites, Pat Glenn Legend Realty, Yellowhammer
Brewery, Tazikis Restaurant, US Space and Rocket Center, Huntsville Botanical Garden and Redstone
Federal Credit Union.